

Initial Community Advisory Group Meeting

Scheduled March 26

Fridley Superfund Sites

Fridley, Minnesota

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency sponsored informational meetings in January to discuss setting up a Community Advisory Group or CAG to monitor the Fridley Superfund sites. After the meetings, EPA received 21 applications to serve on the CAG from community members. EPA is providing the CAG with a non-EPA facilitator to help the members organize. In this initial meeting, CAG participants will get to know each other, talk about how they want to operate, develop some short- and long-term goals and lay out a schedule of meetings. While this initial gathering will mainly be organizational in nature, all CAG meetings are open to the public.

Initial CAG Meeting:

Tuesday, March 26, 2013

6 - 8 p.m.

Fridley Community Center

6085 Seventh St. NE
